Bridging Care and Community Health

About NaLa

The NaLa Conference, also known as the National Latinx Conference on HIV/HCV/SUD, aims to provide Healthcare and Social Service Providers with innovative concepts, best practices, and new information on how to better serve Latine communities. Our workshops will cover a wide range of topics essential to all healthcare providers and practitioners who serve the Latine community. The aim is to provide effective treatment and consultations, with the overall goal of improving patient health outcomes. Our target audience are all practicing physicians, nurses, and non physicians, which include case managers, social workers, community health workers, support staff, linkage specialist and administrators.

Conference Audience

Medical: MDs, DOs, PAs, NPs, RNs, Pharmacists, Ancillary Staff, Etc.

Social Services: Social Workers, Case Managers, Community Health Workers, Advocates, Outreach Staff, Etc.

Administrators: C-Suite Staff, 340B Administrators, Quality Management, Program Managers, Development Staff, Grant Writers, Etc.

Sponsorship Opportunities

Our four levels of sponsorship are curated to fit the needs of our partners to showcase their ongoing commitment to the Latine communities and healthcare providers who serve them. Multi-year sponsorships are available upon request.

Thank you for your support!

As we celebrate our 11th year of bringing people together with our FAMILIA-like approach, we appreciate your ongoing support throughout the years. Without our Sponsors and Exhibitors, these educational and networking resources would not be available at a national level for Latine-serving providers. Your contributions do not go unnoticed, and together we will End the HIV and HCV Epidemics while continuing to address the syndemics that fuel them.
